

The Prodigal Theatre Company Presents

The Tragedian

"A must"

Steven Berkoff

"Beautiful"

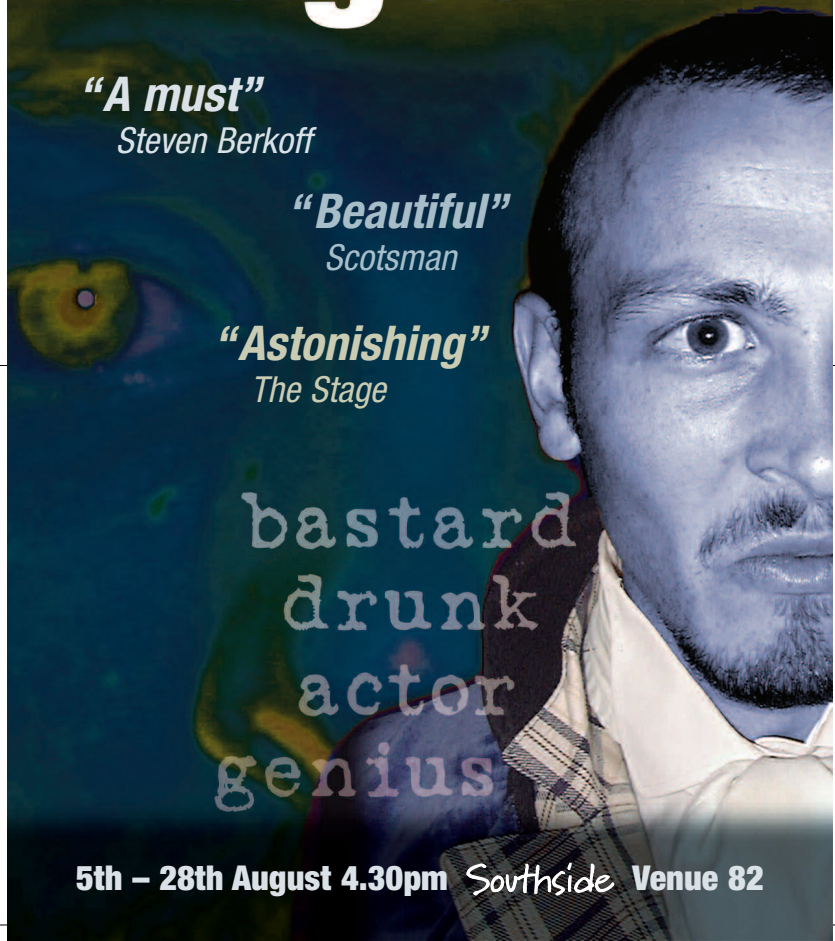

Scotsman

"Astonishing"

The Stage

bastard drunk
actor genius

5th – 28th August 4.30pm Southside Venue 82

The Prodigal Theatre Company Presents

THE COMPLETE TRAGEDIAN TRILOGY

Winner "Best Actor" award at the Brighton Fringe Festival.

The Tragedian is a series of 3 stand-alone plays exploding fame, ambition and the cult of celebrity through the life of Edmund Kean, England's greatest ever actor & the World's first true celebrity.

Part I – The Rise to Fame

At 26 Kean is a grieving, drunk megalomaniac. He is poetry in motion.
Plays Wednesdays and Saturdays

Part II – The Fall to Infamy

At 37 the World's first transatlantic superstar hits self-destruct.
Plays Thursdays and Sundays

Part III – The Decline to Legend

At 44 Kean has only his audience left to live for – and it's the audience that will kill him.

WORLD PREMIERE

Plays Fridays and Mondays

Performed and original text by

Alister O'Loughlin

Directed by Miranda Henderson

5 - 28 August 05
at 4.30pm

Southside, 117 Nicholson Street, Edinburgh

Tickets: £8.50 (£6 concessions) Ticket Office: 0131 667 2212

Southside

